This week's Agenda will cover:

1) Fire drill today at an undetermined time

* Keep up w/ the students / Know where your class exits

2) Work to perfect class transitions

Should be able to move seamlessly; students in class - close your door

3) Lesson plans, CCSS displayed, EQ, etc.

Start looking for consistency between what's displayed + what's being taught

4) Student restroom break procedures

Shouldn't be break every period No students going alone breaks

5) Leave times, Admin & AESOP

All leaves req'd Admin + AESOP

6) Upcoming Observations & Evals

Reminder - observations will be un-announced w/ post-conference in ± 3 days

7) Computer use of iReady, Reading Plus, using online

Be Make sure

Follow procedures laid out by: ① Southernwhite resources ② Marshall for these student resources

8) Student test-strategy expectations

Build into your lesson plans (coming up on April) EOG, EOC are wk away
* Released questions, use of graph paper, highlighters

9) Goal-Attainment as a student grading method -

Please take some time over the next 2 weeks to read the article please take some time to read for discussion after so we can discuss it

the Spring Break

Alternative method of assessment that takes into consideration personal students goals and their timetable towards their success steps

Enjoy yourself - Have a great week as you prepare for a new
